

The Season to Fall for these Amazing Athens Break Getaways

While temperatures quickly drop in the UK, Athens and its stunning surrounding areas still enjoy beautiful weather and a wonderful atmosphere. Take a look at 3 of the best city break getaways for culture, natural beauty and one-of-a-kind luxury living!

Autumn in the Athenian Riviera - Cape Sounio

Can't decide between city and coastal life? At Cape Sounio, Grecotel Exclusive Resort, in the Athenian Riviera, you have the best of both. Just 10 miles from Athens, bustling city life turns into scenic palm-lined beaches and oceanfront promenades.

Terracotta-coloured bungalows blend into the beautiful landscape in an amphitheatrical arrangement. Families can enjoy dedicated family suites or villas with private pool, whilst romantic couples will love the Honeymoon Sea View Suite with private pool.

Aside from two secluded crescent beaches and a seawater pool with whirlpool facing the Temple of Poseidon, a world of luxury living awaits. Relish in the open-air spa set in 5000 m² of landscaped greenery and 5 fine restaurants each with its own international or Greek cuisine.

Big news this Autumn is that Cape Sounio celebrated on October the 3rd Mary Katrantzou's groundbreaking fashion show in celebration of the ELPIDA charity's 30 years! She was the first designer to stage a show at the Temple of Poseidon on 3 October! All ticket sales and charitable donations went towards ELPIDA and Cape Sounio was honoured to have hosted pre-show cocktails.
