

Discover two Dreamy Waterpark Luxury Stays in the Greek Islands

The south-eastern Aegean island complex, the Dodecanese, is amongst Greece's most loved destinations. Ancient archaeological sites, grand Byzantine monuments and unique, medieval buildings easily impress visitors from all corners of the world. In particular, the history, gorgeous beaches, lush vegetation, casual atmosphere and luxury resorts of cosmopolitan Rhodes and Kos makes them a popular choice.

Kos Imperial Thalasso - Timeless Waterfront Elegance

Secluded on a 100,000-sqm estate, Kos Imperial Thalasso curls around an expansive lagoon framed by exotic tropical gardens cascading to the beach's edge. Lagoons, pools, waterfalls, and a river encircling a tiny island make this a dreamy water haven. The resort is just a 35 min drive from Kos Hippocrates Airport and also accessible by ferry.

The resort of timeless elegance features 384 guest rooms including bungalows, suites & beachfront villas. An extensive range of family accommodation makes Kos Imperial Thalasso a firm family favourite whilst Dream Villas with terraces overlooking sweeping sea views are ideal for couples. Opt for VIP services at selected suites and villas for the ultimate luxury experience.

Five amazing waterfront restaurants and 3 bars all with extensive outdoor terraces and the soothing soundtrack of rippling water make dining at Kos Imperial heavenly. Alongside stunning settings, you can opt for unique dining experiences such as live cooking stations, gourmet buffets with fitness food and a local corner with traditional products at the elegant floating Lagoon restaurant. The 'Premium Plus' inclusive food and drink plan has got you covered for a worry-free holiday!

Three different kid's clubs cater to ages 4 - 13+ years, keeping young ones entertained throughout the whole holiday. When it comes to dining, kids eat free in the "Tasty Corner", dedicated entirely to children! There are also special children's menus available in all a la carte restaurants.

For head-to-toe rejuvenation visit the healing 250m² Elixir Thalasso Spa, which features a mosaic-laid hydrotonic pool and a private massage suite with walk-in gardens and open-air soaking tubs. A full programme of activities, from watersports to silk painting and dance shows to live music, is waiting to be enjoyed from day till night.

LUX ME Rhodes - A Unique Luxury Life
