

Grecotel: A Greek tourism ‘treasure’

One more award for its contributions to tourism and the national economy as well as Greek tourism entrepreneurship as a whole

O N. Daskalantonakis – Grecotel Group, a leader in the Greek hospitality and tourism sectors, has been recognised with the «Treasures of Greek Tourism 2017» award, ranking the company among the ‘treasures’ of Greek tourism. The title was presented to the Group’s Phaiax AETA as one of the most robustly-growing tourism enterprises for both its activity and contribution to Greek tourism as well as its important contribution to bolstering the Greek economy.

«Building on the foundations of a long course, the N. Daskalantonakis-Grecotel Group has striven for some 45 years towards its commitment and dedication to making Greece a top destination,» said Group Marketing Director Ioannis Tsihliis. «Being distinguished as a ‘Treasure of Greek Tourism’ is a special honor and reaffirms the heart-felt and infinite devotion with which we, the people of Grecotel, express our deep faith in the N. Daskalantonakis Group, its dynamic, and the potential of the Greek tourism product and our Greece.»

The award was presented at a ceremony on Thursday, December 7, 2017, at the King George Hotel in front of a capacity crowd of representatives of the largest companies and businesses active in the Greek tourism sector. «Treasures of Greek Tourism» is an annual forum for recognising excellence in Greek tourism organised under the aegis of the Ministry of Tourism, SETE, the Greek Chamber of Hotels, and FEDHATTA.

grecotel.com
#myGrecotel
@grecotel

N. Daskalantonakis Group