

GRECOTEL EGNATIA

Where Traditions Come Alive

Dear guests,

We are delighted to welcome you this spring to the beautiful city of Alexandroupolis and to the unique Grecotel Egnatia.

The major festival of Christianity, in the border region of Evros, is definitely a celebration to remember. The mesmerising landscape in full bloom, spring in Evros, and the vivid colours are sure to captivate and move you. Our proud and welcoming people, the sounds and smells of the East which are carried on the spring breeze embrace the Thracian Sea and add to your total experience.

It is a joy that you are close to us during these Holy days in order to celebrate together the glorious celebration of Easter. We sincerely hope you enjoy the magic of our traditions whilst experiencing our local customs.

With our warm wishes for happy Easter!
